Kia ora tatou

Hopefully you will have received the packs on Friday. The draft 2015 Budget was sent Friday night as an Excel file. If you can't open it there is a pdf version in Dropbox under the December meeting papers.

There are still three reviews and the Feuerstein papers to go into Dropbox. These will be there sometime Sunday afternoon. There might be a couple of Feuerstein papers. Apologies to Sarah and Asha who are coming in a little later than everyone else in relation to the discussion around this Feuerstein work proposed for 2015. The Powerpoint by Vicki is the easiest to follow and the other does the same but at another level. Nowadays there is much excitement around brain elasticity and Feuerstein just seems well ahead of his time.

Happy reading.
